SAZ Publisher Award 2013

The SAZ PUBLISHER AWARD is meant to honor publishers who present game designers as the creators of their works in an exemplary manner and include them in relevant communication. As part of its GAMES ALSO HAVE AUTHORS campaign, the SAZ hopes to get game designers, as the creative faces behind the games, more in the public eye. This prize is awarded in 2013 for the first time.

We award the Munich publisher HANS IM GLÜCK

This publishing company has set an example through its exemplary presentation of the authors with text and picture on the package. This level of presentation recognizes the authors' role as originators and increases their visibility to the public and to players. Therefore, this publisher deserves our acknowledgment.

The awarding take place at the International Toy Fair in Nuremberg on January 31st, 2013, 4 PM, in hall 10.1 - C 05, at the Hans im Glück booth. The press is heartly invited.
